

Driving Directions:

From Chania airport, follow signs to Chania center. As you exit the gates of the airport grounds, you turn left at the first intersection. Follow this straight road until you reach a traffic circle. At this traffic circle, you turn right (following signs for Chania).

At the next traffic circle you come to, continue straight, following signs for Chania center. On your right hand side, you will soon pass the 'Eleftherios Venizelos Tombs' (historical site). Continue along the road which will soon become a downhill with bends descending to sea level. Continue to the end of this road. Here you will see the sea in front of you. Take a left turn onto Eleftherios Venizelos Street. You will shortly see Irida Hotel on your left hand side.

Note: Complimentary parking is available for guests along the front of the hotel as well as at a private lot along the side of the building.

As you leave the port of Souda, follow the road straight outside the port. At the first traffic lights you will encounter, go left, then follow a right turn and go straight ahead on Souda Avenue. On your way you will not turn anywhere, you will follow the Irakleiou Street and then you will find Nearchou street.

Go down Nearchou street and find the central Tzanakaki street. At the end of it you will go right at the traffic lights and then at the second traffic lights you will find go right again. Follow this road - El.Venizelou street- and at the end of it you will find hotel Irida on your right.
